Gold Card/Retiree Email Application

The USC Gold Card is not transferrable and may be revoked for violation of university policy. The University of Southern California does not guarantee the privileges as lifetime benefits. The policy currently in effect is subject to change at any time by the University at its discretion, without prior notice or liability for such changes.

• The Gold Card entitles its holders with certain USC privileges. These privileges will be immediately discontinued if the holder returns to benefits eligible employment at USC.
 • To be Gold Card eligible, you must have worked in a benefits eligible position for 10+ years, and retire at age 55 or older.
 • I understand that I may not utilize my Gold Card while actively employed in a benefits eligible position by USC.
 • I understand that if my Gold Card is lost, I will incur a $5.00 fee for replacement.
 • I want to keep my @usc.edu email address active.
 I've certified the information above is correct, and I further understand that if I do not adhere to the standards of the Gold Card privilege, the privilege will be revoked immediately.
