Staff Retirees since 1986

SUPPORTING OUR COMMUNITY

The SRA serves as an advocate for USC retiree benefits, along with the Retired Faculty Association (RFA) and the Emeriti Center. Together, these groups are represented on the Emeriti Center Benefits and Resource Committee, which cooperates with the USC Administration and Staff Assembly.

The SRA offers social, educational, and entertaining programs to bring our members together and reinforce their lifelong bonds with USC.

Each year, the SRA plans a Staff Recognition Award Luncheon to honor staff members who have retired the previous year.

A retired staff who has contributed outstanding service to the University is nominated for and awarded the J. Tillman-Hall Award.

SRA volunteers send greeting cards to recognize birthdays and anniversaries and to contact members who are ill or have suffered a loss in their family.

Hosts (in collaboration with RFA and the Emeriti Center) the annual Holiday Party in December.

The SRA offers information on topics of interest to retirees, including health, financial and legal issues, aging, special interests, and continuing education.

The SRA contributes to the Emeriti Center to support activities of importance to the USC Retiree Community.

The SRA participates in the Transitions Program designed to help Staff considering retirement.

The SRA plans field trips for members as well as musical and theatrical events performed by USC students and guest artists.

SRA members volunteer and contribute to the Emeriti Center's USC Living History Project.
